

Centessa Announces Closing of Initial Public Offering and Full Exercise of Underwriters' Option to Purchase Additional ADSs

June 4, 2021

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. and LONDON, June 04, 2021 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Centessa Pharmaceuticals plc ("Centessa"), a clinical-stage company employing its innovative asset-centric business model to discover, develop and ultimately deliver impactful medicines to patients, announced today that, in connection with its previously announced initial public offering of 16,500,000 American Depositary Shares ("ADSs"), the underwriters have fully exercised their option to purchase an additional 2,475,000 ADSs at the initial public offering price of $20.00 per ADS, less underwriting discounts and commissions. The closing of the initial public offering occurred on June 2, 2021 and the issuance and sale of the additional ADSs closed today. The gross proceeds to Centessa from its initial public offering, before deducting underwriting discounts, commissions and other estimated offering expenses, totaled an aggregate of $379.5 million.

Morgan Stanley, Goldman Sachs & Co. LLC, Jefferies, and Evercore ISI acted as joint book-running managers for the offering.

About Centessa

Centessa Pharmaceuticals plc aims to bring impactful new medicines to patients by combining the strengths of an asset-centric model with the benefits of scale and diversification typical of larger R&D organizations. The asset-centric model refers to a highly specialized, singular-focused company that is led by a team of well-recognized subject matter experts. Centessa wholly owns ten of these asset-centric companies. The companies' programs range from discovery-stage to late-stage development and include diverse therapeutic areas including oncology, hematology, immunology/inflammation, neuroscience, hepatology, pulmonology and nephrology. Centessa's asset-centric companies are overseen by the Centessa management team, which sets overall strategy and direction, provides leadership and expertise, and manages resource allocation and shared infrastructure.
